To Whom It May Concern:

In 2008, I hired Jeanne Grunert and Seven Oaks Consulting to create the websites for EduMetry, Inc. (www.EduMetry.com) and Virtual-TA (www.Virtual-TA.com).

Jeanne's skills as a project manager and copywriter are second to none. She smoothly directed teams based in the United States and India to create both websites on time and on budget. Jeanne is a consummate professional and working with her is a true pleasure. Her warm, direct and candid style builds teamwork and consensus, and her knowledge of marketing and direct marketing is extensive. I recommend Seven Oaks Consulting to your company without hesitation and would hire them again for any marketing projects.

Sincerely,
